

Breaking Down Silos

for team leaders from individual organizational departments

problems solved

- ✓ Negative Competition
- ✓ Destructive Behavior Patterns
- ✓ Damaging “Gossip”
- ✓ Loss of Productivity
- ✓ Isolated Agendas (withholding ideas and/or information)

benefits

- + Cross-Team Collaboration
- + Positive Organizational Atmosphere
- + Participative Management Teams
- + Cooperative Environment
- + Realization of Goals as an Organization
- + Growth and Prosperity

how we do it

Teams will learn specific skill sets geared toward organizational cooperation and collaboration. After a series of specifically chosen activities and exercises, team members will be broken into groups outside of their own and will develop ideas for product development, cross organizational problem solving, conflict resolution, cooperative efforts to defeat the competition and enhance the bottom line. As a result they will realize how cross-team work will make for a better life in the workplace for each team member and how it will benefit the organization as a whole.
